

The KwaZulu-Natal Museum is one of the largest and leading heritage institutions in the country. It is dedicated to serving the people of South Africa by interpreting, collecting and exhibiting material evidence of the cultural and natural world, in order to increase knowledge, understanding and appreciation of the nation's rich heritage. The KwaZulu-Natal Museum invites applicants for the following internship opportunity:

12 MONTHS INTERNSHIP FOR AN UNEMPLOYED MARKETING GRADUATE R5 000 MONTHLY STIPEND

The following compulsory requirements will be used to select the suitable candidate:

Candidate must have a National Diploma in Marketing • Candidate must submit a cover letter explaining why the Museum should consider your application, a Curriculum Vitae with a list of references, and certified copies of the ID, Matric certificate and the National Diploma in Marketing • Candidate must be a citizen of South Africa • Candidate must be self-initiator, be pro-active, and have fair facilitation and presentation skills • Candidate must be able to communicate in English.

Applications should be directed to: The Chief Human Resources Officer, KwaZulu-Natal Museum. They can be hand delivered to 237 Jabu Ndlovu Street, Pietermaritzburg, 3201; or posted to Private Bag 9070, Pietermaritzburg, 3200 or Email: recruitment@nmsa.org.za.

Further enquiries regarding this opportunity may be directed to the Human Resources Officer, Mrs. Lindiwe Molefe, at 033 345 1404. The KwaZulu-Natal Museum will enter into correspondence with short-listed candidates only. It is the responsibility of each candidate who has been invited to the interview to avail himself or herself. The Museum will consider failure to attend the interview on the given interview date as lack of interest in the position. No faxed applications will be accepted.

The closing date for the submission of all applications is 20 November 2020 at 12:00pm. No late applications will be accepted.

NB: People with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The KwaZulu-Natal Museum reserves the right not to make an appointment.

an agency of the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture